

Please do not endorse the use of Broadband transmission over the power lines as it will interfere with a variety of communications. There are many alternatives for data transmission and the primary motivation of companies involved in this project is to make money not to promote public interest.